

Jinx Day Goes OK, But Saturday--Wow

By ILENE ALLISON
Memo 4-2436

Friday the 13th was just another day to Mrs. Henry Brewer, 17033 Glenburn Ave. Things went along as usual, but on Saturday, the 14th, well, that's another story. Betty had gone to the nursery to pick up some plants and on making a stop before going home, she discovered half of the plants she purchased had not been put in the car. She returned to the nursery on Redondo Beach Blvd. to see why they were left out. Having retrieved the plants she lifted the lid, placed them in the back of the car and had hardly got under the wheel when another car came careening down the street and slammed into four of the parked cars. Betty's car number one! It was pretty well demolished as was the rear of the other three. Luck was with the owners, too, for in this most unusual accident, not a person was injured. Betty is still pondering over whether it was or was not her lucky day.

Getting some first-hand information about the stars were Mrs. Dean's sixth grade pupils of North Torrance Elementary as they attended lectures at Griffith Park Observatory this week. Viewing the stars and planets at this particular time proved most educational and informative for the boys and girls who listened along with classes from other schools. Lunches were brought and eaten on the grounds to climax an enjoyable day.

Very thoughtful were the ladies of Faysmith Ave. as they presented Mrs. A. M. Christensen with a corsage as a goodbye gesture. She returned to her home in Vancouver, Wash., after having visited her daughter and family, the Pesolas, of that street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Vaughan, 17028 Ermanita Ave., welcomed a new little boy to their home this March 6th and named him Terry Frank. Terry weighed seven pounds and three ounces. Quite thrilled over the new brother are Susie, 4, and Jerry, 2 years old.

Perhaps the bus driver was a bit puzzled Saturday when Mrs. Adaline Cortez and Mrs. Ruth Towell boarded the vehicle with seven small boys and girls, all bound for downtown Los Angeles to see the very popular Peter Pan. This excited entourage consisted of Duke and Eric Cortez, Judy and Mike Towell, Larry Eagle, Sandy Sullivan and Pam Fletcher. Richy and Johnny Fannon attended the following day with their parents, the Thomas Fannons, 17520 Cerise. Peter Pan, the boy who never grew up, is a favorite topic of discussion among the small-fry these days.

In keeping with Eastertime was very small Joey Fletcher's party in honor of his second birthday. The diaper set gathered at 17523 Cerise and enjoyed to the last crumb the chocolate egg cake with the chickens and jelly bean eggs that were on top. This time the cornered pants set includes Tina Cortez, Duke Cortez, Nancy Ruoff, Johnny Ruoff, Laurie Gastelum, Robby Fannon, Gary Holbrook, and Brock Holbrook.

Cub Scout Master Johnny Miller took forty boys of Troop 761-C by a special Torrance bus to Skatland in Inglewood for a morning of real fun Saturday. The boys and several parents met at the Miller home at 10 o'clock and each spent the next two hours having the time of his life skating. Mr. Miller is a new Scoutmaster, having taken over at the recent pack meeting.

Sympathy of the entire area extended to Mrs. Otto Fagnano on the passing of her father, Mr. Lou Metelli of Englewood, N. J. Emma and children, Sandy and Chris, planned to Inglewood where they will remain for some time with Mrs. Fagnano's mother. Mrs. Fagnano succeeded Mrs. Robert Jackson as president of North Torrance Elementary School PTA at the monthly meeting held Wednesday, March 11.

Some of you may not have noticed the new Foursquare Gospel Church at 17225 Crenshaw, but this week I had the privilege of talking with Rev. Rude about the activities of the congregation and was quite surprised to learn that since the latter part of October, the Sunday School attendance has swelled to 70 children. Church is held each Sunday morning and evening with a Youth Choir on Wednesday. The Evangelical Release in which eighteen are enrolled (these are pupils of the elementary school fourth, fifth, and sixth grades who are released for one hour of Bible study per week) are picked up at the school and returned by Rev.

Rude and an assistant after having been taught for that period from the Bible. Although Rev. Rude is comparatively new to the area, his wife, the former Eleanor Salm, was reared at their present address, 1803 W. 182nd St. Congratulations are in order for the Rev. and Mrs. Rude, who now have a second daughter born March 9 at Las Campanas Hospital in Compton. She was named Karen Dean; her three-year-old sister is Peggy Lynn. Some 80 children are expected to attend the picnic at Torrance Park Saturday. They will meet at the church at 10 o'clock and go as a group to the picnic area.

The all-out efforts of the ladies of the Alpha Society to aid in the fund for the new church to be constructed on 174th near Yukon, has brought to light many money-making ideas. Mrs. Betty Johnson has an apron of patches going from friend to friend who, upon receiving the apron, adds a patch with money sewed underneath! A kitty followed by a dish of someone's favorite food is gathering the coin. Mrs. Ann Collins knits dust mits of cotton yarn that are very popular for home use and on the car. Mrs. Phyllis Considine is crocheting the same and sales are into months with a holiday market off covered with coin by means of Scotch tape. These are collected at the end of the year. All these and more are aiding the progress of the building. The Sunday School building moved on the site is ready for the foundation, to be poured Saturday. Workers will be served dinner by the Alpha ladies.

Seen whirling to the music of Jan Garbar at the Palladium Saturday were Miss Sally Collins, Eddie VonBöhren, Miss Marilyn Schooley, and Jim Whittington.

Perry PTA will hold the monthly meeting tonight at 7:30. Speaker of the evening will be Jack White, president of North Torrance Civic Association. Elections for the officers to serve the coming year will be held.

Robert Bowen, 17516 Glenburn Ave., was rushed again to Harbor General Hospital for an operation on his back—a very delicate one which has taken much of the strength he tried so hard to gain. Let's not forget to drop a card now and there to cheer a brave boy who has endured much. He is in Ward B-3, Harbor General Hospital.

Sadness struck at the home of the Hynes, 15321 Roslin Ave., this week when little Linda Hynes, age 3, was struck by a car and is in the hospital for observation. Children up and down the block have taken a collection to send a gift to Linda. Let's hope she is all well and home again real soon.

Sorry to hear that Sandy Considine is a victim of scarlet fever.

Congratulations to the William Wrights, 18328 Roslin, on their wedding anniversary this March 18.

The Faysmith crowd honored Mrs. Laura Pesola on her birthday this week with a get-together and presented her with a handsome planter and candy dish.

Mrs. Evelyn Holecek dashed out to go to work the other day, and the car would not start. After many futile attempts, little 3-year-old Mark piped up with this: "It should start, I just gassed it up." You guessed it. He had the water hose!

A history of the Girl Scouts of America was presented to the North Torrance Elementary PTA last week by members of Mrs. Basil Ball's Troop No. 1277 in observance of the 41st birthday of the girls' organization. Taking part in the presentation were Lela Santor, Jean Sorrell, Darlene Holecek, Diane Hodges, Joanne Beckham, Donna Tash, Yvonne Turbay, Rosemary Street, Leota Pierce, Fay Amundsen, Carole Atkins, Adrienne Balkman, Roberta Bedoe, and Pat Fraker.

The girls spoke on "What's History and Its Promises." At the end of the program a birthday cake was presented to Principal Donald Robinson.

A friendship festival which will include a rummage sale, fish pond, and other attractions, will be held by members of Girl Scout Troop 1368 on April 1 at the home of the troop's leader, Mrs. Earl Brest, at 3207 W. 186th St. Information about the event may be obtained by calling Mrs. Brest at Menlo 4-6936.
